NOTES

- FICPI Australia has reserved a block of rooms at the Eos Hotel at a very favourable room rate. Booking and payment for accommodation is your responsibility, and the Accommodation Booking should be made via the link provided by SkyCity Eos Hotel. (<https://reservations.travelclick.com/110623?RatePlanId=7678987>) If you call the hotel, mention you are booking with FICPI Australia. The FICPI Room rate is $389 per night. A block of rooms is being made available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please complete this step as soon as possible, noting that bookings at the agreed rate are available until 27 June 2023. After that date, SkyCity Eos Hotel rack room rate may apply.
- In-house managers, HR managers and CEOs are invited to register and can attend all sessions and events but not the Special General Meeting. Please pass a copy of this registration form to others if you wish them to attend.
- Non-member patent and trade marks attorneys who are eligible to apply to become a FICPI member (see Note 5 for eligibility criteria) are invited on a one-time only basis to register at the member rate (see above) and have the first year of FICPI membership paid for if they apply to become a member before 22 July 2023, and thus can attend all sessions and events, and attend the Annual General Meeting. Please pass a copy of this registration to any non-member attorneys you believe may wish to attend.
- The Full day or Half Day conference options cannot be combined.
- The registration fees do not include transport to and from your home city, accommodation, or private room expenses. A tax invoice, including GST from FICPI Australia, will be issued following registration.

6. Eligibility to become an Associate Member of FICPI Australia under Article 9 shall be non-voting members of the Association. Every new candidate for associate membership shall be either:
- A. a patent attorney registered in Australia:
 - a. whose primary endeavour is as a patent attorney, and
 - b. who does not practise on behalf of one client or affiliated group of clients, to the exclusion of other clients; or
 - B. a trade marks attorney registered in Australia not also registered as a patent attorney in Australia:
 - a. whose primary endeavour is as a trade marks attorney, and
 - b. who does not practise on behalf of one client or affiliated group of clients to the exclusion of other clients.
7. Eligibility to become an Ordinary Member of FICPI Australia under Article 5 of the Articles of Association is briefly summarised below. Please speak to the Secretary or a Council member to explore this step further. However, a prospective member is a person:
- in independent practice as a Patent Attorney in Australia or as a Trade Marks Attorney in Australia
 - have their primary endeavour as a patent attorney or as a trade marks attorney
 - have at least five years experience as a patent attorney or trade marks attorney since registrations as such in Australia or overseas
 - not practise only on behalf of one client or an affiliated group of clients to the exclusion of other clients
 - Please note that under the amendments made to our Articles of Association last year (see Note 5 below), all patent attorneys in private practice for at least five years and trade marks attorneys for a similar period, subject to the additional conditions as specified, attorneys whether partners/principals or not, are eligible to become members of FICPI.
